

Jecka and Nicole are shopping in a mall. Jecka suddenly stops, because she sees something interesting.

Nicole:

What do you see?

Jecka:

I don't know, but it looks interesting.

Nicole:

Do you want to take a look at it?

Jecka:

(Let me think about this)

Option for next dialogues:

1. Sure, let's take a look together.
2. Wait outside for me.
3. Let's just ignore it. It makes me kind of nervous.

Option 1 story:

Jecka and Nicole entered the store to see the strange object. The shop owner came to them and asked if they came to buy it. The 2 looked at each other and asked what the prices were.

Jecka:

It looks cool. What are the prices for it?

Shop owner:

Either 10 million $ or a sacrifice.

Nicole:

That second option sounds terrifying to me.

Jecka:

I have to agree.

Shop owner:

This thing will not work when you are not rich or when you don't want to sacrifice someone for it.

Nicole:

Do you want it or not?

Jecka:

(Let me think about it)

Options:

1. Sorry, Nicole, but I really want this.
2. Sacrifice the strange shop owner.
3. Let's get out of here Nicole.

Jecka pushed Nicole away, and Nicole landed on something sharp and did not survive. Jecka grabs the thing and leaves the store behind.

Jecka:

Now that I have this thing I can have some peace.

Nicole? Where are you?

Well I guess she was the sacrifice for this thing. I am going home now.

Or should I?

Options:

1. Go home and hide the thing to use after school.
2. Wish to have sacrificed the shop owner instead.
3. Wish to alter reality, so that you did not enter the store at all.

Jecka hid the thing somewhere deep inside her room.

Jecka:

Now that is hidden, let's get ready to go to school.

While Jecka is getting ready to go to school. Her mother comes to her room.

Jecka's mother:

Do you have an idea where Nicole is? Her parents called me and said she went missing.

Jecka:

I do not know what you are talking about. I haven't seen Nicole at all today.

Jecka's mother:

If you are lying to me, it means that you cannot go out for a few months.

Jecka:

I am telling the truth.

Jecka's mother:

Okay, I believe you. Now get ready to go to school.

Jecka:

(Let me think about this)

Options:

1. Pretend to go to school, sneak away when your parents aren't watching.
2. Say that you are ill (and wish for Nicole to be back.)
3. Go to school.

Jecka walks to the schoolbus, and walks through it.

Jecka:

Well that is what I call perfection.

Now what should I do?

I could go back to that store and bully the owner. Or I can summon that thing and release what is inside it. I think it will be very happy to be freed.

But maybe doing those things is a bad idea.

(Let me think about this)

Options:

1. Release the creature.
2. Wish to have never bought the thing in the first place.
3. Wish to have never entered the store at all.

Jecka walked to the middle of a soccerfield and summoned the creature.

Creature:

Thanks for freeing me. Now I will destroy this planet. There is no going back now.

Jecka:

Can you just kill every human, they look kind of like me, and let this planet survive, so I can live.

Creature:

I deny your request. Your heart showed true darkness, and only true light can command me.

Jecka:

At least I tried.

In the end the entire planet Earth was destroyed in a few days. Jecka learned a lesson she thought was unnecessary to learn in the first place. Never make bad decisions, since it will eventually cause total destruction to a planet.

Option 2 story:

Jecka walks into the store.

Shop owner:

Welcome to our store. Are you looking to buy something?

Jecka:

This thing here caught my eye.

Shop owner:

It is worth 10 million $ or a sacrifice. The choice is yours. Call your friend or walk away.

Jecka:

(I need to think this through)

Options:

1. Call Nicole and tell her to stand so that Jecka can end her to get the thing.
2. Sacrifice the weird shop owner instead.
3. Walk outside and ignore the item.

The shop owner was shocked. They couldn't do anything. Jecka grabbed the thing and walked outside to chat with Nicole. Jecka and Nicole are going to Jecka's house.

Nicole:

What does it do?

Jecka:

I have no idea.

Nicole:

Let's figure that out after school.

Jecka:

(I will have to think about this)

Options:

1. Use the thing to end Nicole.
2. Sure, let's go to school before trying this thing out.
3. Wish to have never entered that store at all.

Jecka and Nicole went to Jecka's house to get ready for school.

Nicole:

Have you done your homework?

Jecka:

I completely forgot to do that. Can I copy your homework?

Nicole:

This will be the last time.

Jecka:

Sorry Nicole.

Jecka's mother came to Jecka's room and saw Nicole and Jecka doing their homework.

Jecka's mother:

Nicole, your parents called me asking where you were, and I said that you are here.

Nicole:

Thank you.

Jecka's mother:

Make sure to take the bus on time.

Jecka:

I will make sure that we go to school on time.

Jecka's mother:

Okay.

Jecka's mother leaves the room.

Nicole:

Ready?

Jecka:

(Let me think about this)

Options:

1. End Nicole and sneak away.
2. Say that you are ill
3. Wish to have never entered that store at all.

Nicole looks at Jecka.

Nicole:

We just went to that store. How are you feeling ill?

Jecka:

I think it is that thing that causes it.

Nicole:

Then get rid of it by destroying it.

Jecka:

I will try.

Nicole:

You better do that.

Jecka attempts to break the thing and succeeds.

Nicole:

Feeling any better?

Jecka:

Yes, a little bit.

Nicole:

Let's go to school then.

Jecka and Nicole stepped into the school bus, but before Jecka stepped in, she hesitated.

Nicole:

Jecka?

Jecka:

(Let me think this through)

Options:

1. Grab the real thing from your pockets. And end Nicole.
2. Get into the school bus.
3. Wish to have never entered that store.

Jecka has destroyed the strange object. She goes to school and does not look back at all. A few years later Jecka got arrested for murder.

In the end, making good decisions after a bad decision can lead to balance, but sometimes your past will eventually catch up to you. So if you try to keep balance, make sure to not make terrible decisions at all.

Option 3 story:

Jecka and Nicole both walk away from that strange store and continue their journey in the mall.

Nicole:

Why didn't you go for that thing?

Jecka:

I got a little bit scared of it.

Nicole:

I felt the same. You sure you don't want to check it out yourself?

Jecka:

(I need to think about this)

Options:

1. Go back and sacrifice Nicole for that thing.
2. Go back and sacrifice the shop owner for that thing.
3. Don't go back and get ready to leave the store.

Jecka and Nicole walked to the outside of the mall.

Nicole:

That was fun, wasn't it?

Jecka:

Yes, it was.

Nicole:

What do you want to do now?

Jecka:

I think that we should go to my house to get ready for school.

Nicole:

Okay.

Jecka:

(Let me think about this)

Options:

1. Go back to the shop and sacrifice Nicole for that thing.
2. Go back to the shop and sacrifice the shop owner for that thing.
3. Go home.

Jecka and Nicole are at Jecka's house.

Nicole:

Have you done your homework?

Jecka:

Yes, I did.

Nicole:

Do you want to compare our answers?

Jecka:

Sure.

Nicole and Jecka are comparing eachothers answers to the homework questions.
Suddenly Jecka's mother walks into Jecka's room.

Jecka's mother:

Is everything going okay in here?

Nicole:

Yes. Nothing is wrong. We are just comparing our homework with each other.

Jecka:

We are doing that, indeed.

Jecka's mother:

Okay, good.

Jecka's mother walks away. Jecka and Nicole are getting ready to get onto the school bus.

Nicole:

Are you ready?

Jecka:

I am ready if you are.

Nicole:

I am ready as well.

Jecka:

(Let me think this through)

Options:

1. Wish to have used Nicole as a sacrifice to own that thing.
2. Wish to have sacrificed the shop owner to own that thing.
3. Go to school.

Jecka and Nicole walked to the school bus. Jecka hesitated before she stepped in.

Nicole:

Everything okay?

Jecka:

(Let me think about this)

Options:

1. Wish to have sacrificed Nicole to phase through the bus and release the creature inside of the thing.
2. Wish to have sacrificed the shop owner to break the thing.
3. Get into the school bus and go to school.

Jecka and Nicole stepped into the school bus, and they went to school. When they tried to find that weird shop, they never found it again.

In the end, when you keep making good decisions, even if they are tough, they can avoid getting you into trouble.
